Vivere per raccontarla 2002 the architecture of the human language faculty has been one of the main foci of the linguistic research of the last half century this branch of linguistics broadly known as generative grammar is concerned with the formulation of explanatory formal accounts of linguistic phenomena with the ulterior goal of gaining insight into the properties of the language organ the series comprises high quality monographs and collected volumes that address such issues the topics in this series range from phonology to semantics from syntax to information structure from mathematical linguistics to studies of the lexicon

Fiction 2001 this volume presents a kind of anticipated companion volume to the hbs edition of the Directorium Sacerdotum a variety of ordinal or directory which was privately compiled by clement maydeston who though a priest held formally the post of deacon at the brigittine abbey of syon middlesex c 1390 1456 despite these origins the compilation acquired a de facto official status the Directorium Sacerdotum itself was published as volumes 20 and 22 the Directorium aimed in part at providing calendrical and rubrical solutions for those observing the sarum use it did this by making a distinction between the practice of the salisbury cathedral chapter and the practice that could reasonably be required from the many others in england who followed in general the sarum use maydeston s position was that outside the salisbury chapter it was reasonable to make modifications to meet local conditions and calendars this was deemed unacceptable by some who maintained that the practice observed at salisbury itself should be followed everywhere this line of argument ignored the fact that in any case there were contradictions between the existing manuscript drafts of the sarum ordinal and the rubrics of the liturgical books the edition focuses in particular on two printed texts which offer maydeston s defence the first is the Defensorium Directorii Sacerdotum printed in successive editions of the Directorium Sacerdotum by wynkyn de worde in 1495 the second is the text Crede michi a longer and more considered rubrical tract compiled by maydeston but incorporating rubrical adjudications made by the salisbury canons c 1440 1450 and partly based on an earlier work by one john raynton the text given is that printed by wynkyn de worde in the quarto of 1495

Consequences of Antisymmetry 1999-01-01 this book situates the picturebook genre within the widespread international phenomenon of crossover literature examining an international corpus of picturebooks including artists books wordless picturebooks and celebrity picturebooks that appeal to readers of all ages focusing on contemporary picturebooks sandra beckett shows that the picturebook has traditionally been seen as a children s genre but in the eyes of many authors illustrators and publishers it is a narrative form that can address any and all age groups innovative graphics and formats as well as the creative often complex dialogue between text and image provide multiple levels of meaning and invite readers of all ages to consider texts that are primarily marketed as children s books the interplay of text and image that distinguishes the picturebook from other forms of fiction and makes it a unique art form also makes it the ultimate crossover genre crossover picturebooks are often very complex texts that are challenging for adults as well as children many are characterized by difficult adult themes genre blending metafictional discourse intertextuality sophisticated graphics and complex text image interplay exciting experiments with new formats and techniques as well as novel interactions with new media and technologies have made the picturebook one of the most vibrant and innovative contemporary literary genres one that seems to know no boundaries crossover picturebooks is a valuable addition to the study of a genre that is gaining increasing recognition and appreciation and contributes significantly to the field of children s literature as a whole

Henry Bradshaw Society 1894 this collection brings together leading experts in a number of fields of the humanities to offer a new perspective on the classical tradition drawing on reception studies philology and early modern studies the essays explore the interaction between literary criticism and the multiple cultural contexts in which texts were produced discovered appropriated and translated the intersection of realpolitik and textual criticism poetic and musical aesthetics and authority and self fashioning all come under scrutiny the canonical latin writers and their subsequent reception form the backbone of the volume with a focus on the european renaissance it thus marks a reconnection between classical and early modern studies and the concomitant rapprochement of philological and cultural historical approaches to texts and other works of art this book will be of interest to scholars in classics renaissance studies comparative literature english italian and art history

The Tracts of Clement Maydeston 1894 the dialogue between and christian and a hindu about religion javābasvāla aika krīstīān aura aika hīṃdu ke bīca mo imāna ke upara was written in about 1751 by giuseppe maria da gargnano with help from his capuchin friend and colleague cassiano da macerata and from an unnamed brahmin teacher this teacher apparently taught giuseppe maria to read hindustani and some sanskrit instructed him in the basics of hindu religion and corrected the hindustani text of the dialogue a copy of the hindustani text was first presented to the raja of bettiah in 1751 subsequently an undetermined number of hand made copies were distributed among persons in the bettiah area a copy of the hindustani text in an indian script related to nagari dated in 1751 together with an italian version was sent to rome and is now in the vatican library borg ind 11 another copy of the text dated in 1787 is also found in the same library borg ind 16 in the context of the still limited progress of european studies of indian languages and culture in giuseppe maria s historical period and despite the shortcomings of his own cultural upbringing and intellectual training the hindu christian dialogu remains a pioneering linguistic and religious experiment

Considerazioni sopra la notizia degli Accademici Lincei scritta dal signor G. Bianchi e premessa all' opera intitolata: Φυτοβασανος di F. Colonna, etc. (Praescriptiones Lynceae Accademiae. Curante J. Fabro.). 1745 this volume discusses the aesthetic and cognitive challenges of modern picturebooks from different countries such as denmark france germany norway spain sweden united kingdom and usa the overarching issue concerns the mutual relationship between representation and narration by means of the picturebooks multimodal character moreover this volume includes the main lines of debate and approaches to picturebooks by international leading researchers in the field topics covered are the impact of paratexts and inter pictorial allusions the relationship between artists books crossover picturebooks and picturebooks for adults the narrative defiance of wordless picturebooks the representation of emotions in images and text and the depiction of hybrid characters in picturebooks the enlargement of the picturebook corpus beyond an anglo american picturebook canon opens up new horizons and highlights the diverging styles and genre shifts in modern picturebooks this tendency also demonstrates the influence of specific authors and illustrators on the appreciation of the picturebook genre as in the case of astrid lindgren s picturebooks and the picturebooks created by renowned illustrators such as anthony browne wolf erlbruch stian hole and bruno munari this book will be the definite contribution to contemporary picturebook research for many years to come
